

ABBEY ADDENDA
An AGM Update

BOOK SIGNING:

We currently have six ( 6) authors who will be signing their books on Friday evening: Stephanie Barron, one of our Plenary Speakers, and Pamela Aidan, Carrie Bebris, Carey Bligard, Syrie James, and Laura Viera Riegler.

HAIRDRESSING:

The AGM is happy to make available the services of Susanna Cerasuolo, who will be doing ladies hair in updos for the Bal Masque. She will also offer a "look-book" of appropriate regency period style from which to choose. Cost will depend upon the complexity of the style. Information on making an appointment will be available in the Registration and Information area of the Hilton Hotel.

MILSOM STREET EMPORIUM:

The AGM is going to have 14 vendors and many regional groups for your shopping pleasure. Everything from adornments to zombies will be available for sale, as well as the usual richness of book offerings.

PHOTOGRAPHY:

Many members asked us to arrange for a professional photographer to be available Saturday night to do portraits of them in their finery. We are pleased to announce that Lorena Sanchez will be there and provide a portrait studio experience for us in the Ballroom Foyer. Lorena is enthusiastic and wrote: "Photographs would be a great testimony to the time and effort my fellow Janeites put into their wardrobes."

SHIPPING:

The Portland Hilton Hotel through the Concierge Desk will arrange for any shipping needs of AGM registrants through UPS. You will not need your own UPS account. You just have to provide the hotel with a method of payment (credit card or bill-back to your hotel room). They will also provide packing tape, scissors, markers and other mail supplies. All shipments must go through the Concierge Desk.
